BIO

From sending local pubs into frenzied dance floors to stirring the pot of the pop music world, Joel James Live, is a musical enigma among the Melbourne pub scene.

A homegrown self-taught multi-instrumentalist and innovative producer, Joel masterfully marries modern pop sensibilities with a nostalgic nod to yesteryears, offering a sonic experience that's as fresh as it is familiar.

2023 was a groundbreaking year for Joel. In an unconventional twist to his songwriting, Joel debuted his breakthrough appearance on The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon. Known as the 'backwards-singing guy,' Joel has captivated audiences worldwide with his remarkable talent for singing songs backward, a feat that not only showcases his musical versatility but also his unique approach to songwriting and performance.

His latest single, "Memory Lane," ventures into the introspective territory of loss, change, and the quest for belonging in an ever-shifting world. Through the allegory of a tree outside his bedroom window, cut down in its prime, Joel crafts a narrative that resonates with the universal experiences of growth, betrayal, and the nostalgic yearning for a simpler past. "Memory Lane" is a lyrical journey that invites listeners to reflect on their paths, underscored by Joel's emotive vocals and a rich tapestry of acoustic sounds.

Now, with his appearance on a major American talk show under his belt and a continually growing following, Joel is ready to take his place and solidify his footprint in the pop music world. His music, characterised by its depth, craftsmanship, and a knack for storytelling, promises to leave a lasting impact.
